The insurer without frontiers

We are pleased to announce our new Vision Incentive offer...

Additional month free

Available only until 29th April 2005

Notice to all Generali International Introducers

Due to the popularity and success of our last Vision incentive, we are once again announcing our new free premium offer.

- An additional month's contribution free for all new business proposals for Vision with a monthly premium of at least USD500 or annual equivalent and a minimum premium paying term at outset of 10 years.

This raises the total allocation to over 115% in year one on larger cases, a real client incentive to save.

- This offer is available with effect from 1st February 2005 up to and including 29th April 2005.
- An additional month's contribution free for existing Policyholders who increase their premium by at least USD500 per month or annual equivalent on policies with a premium paying term at outset of at least 10 years.

Conditions

- The incentive only applies to regular premium Vision plans.
- Currency conversions for this incentive are as shown in the Vision brochure.
- Qualifying proposals will be those received at Generali International offices from 1st February 2005 up to and including 29th April 2005.
- Policies whose first new premium is received after 31st May 2005 will not qualify.
- All new and existing policies must remain premium paying at the new premium level for at least 5 years or the incentive will be forfeited.
- Free premiums are subject to the usual charges.
- The company reserves the right to change or cancel this promotion at any time.
- Policies that either lapse or are made paid-up and are subsequently fully reinstated during the first five years will have the free premium reinstated subject to management discretion.

This leaflet is for Independent Financial Advisers only.
